About Me

My favorite quote –
"Heights by great men reached and kept
were not obtained by sudden flight but,
while their companions slept,
they were toiling upward in the night."

--Henry Wadsworth
Longfellow

Most people say that I am outgoing and jovial person, yet sometimes I don't think that I am.

I would rather refer to myself as a dedicated, loyal, compassionate, empathetic, sometimes stubborn young lady.

I believe that life is to be enjoyed with every moment but also that time is precious.
